

Consent to publish student names

The AMT will publish the results of high-performers in the AIMO competition on its website. This may include information about students including their name, school, school year, score, award and/or medal/prize. By submitting the work of the students that have registered you:

1. consent to the publication of student information on the AMT website
2. agree that you have authority to provide the above consent
3. acknowledge and agree that, once information has been published on our website, AMT has no control over third parties using and disclosing that information.

What to do if you do not wish student information to be published

If you do not wish your student information to be published on our website, please email us at privacy@amt.edu.au before Friday 8 September 2023.

Certification

I hereby certify that:

- I have read and understood the advice above regarding consent to publish student details
- the AIMO question paper was not given to participating students until the scheduled time of sitting, that being _____AM / PM Thursday 7 September 2023
- the student/s worked on the problems under examination conditions and under in-person supervision by me and/or other authorised supervisors for the duration of the sitting
- the students were given no more than 4 hours to complete the paper
- the question papers and student responses were collected after the competition and will be held securely and not released or returned to students until Monday 17 September
- students were directed not to discuss the content of the competition until Monday 17 September.

Name of lead supervisor <input type="text"/>	School <input type="text"/>
Signature <input type="text"/>	Email <input type="text"/>
Role <input type="text"/>	Date <input type="text"/>

Please scan this form with your student responses and upload to the AMT Admin Portal via the Answer Sheets tab.

Email competitions@amt.edu.au

Phone: (02) 6201 5136

Administration portal: <https://competitions.amt.edu.au/admin/>